in portugal

Tondela

Tondela is a town in the Dao-Lafoes district. It has a population of about 30,000. It has many residential areas and a small but beautiful city centre, the oldest part of the town. There are lots of industries in the municipality, especially related to chemistry.

the school

The name of the school is Agrupamento de Escolas de Tondela Tomaz Ribeiro. It consists of six different buildings, surrounded by gorgeous green areas for students to relax. There is also an artificial football pitch. Students have classes in the morning and in the afternoon.

the task

Portuguese students organised a performance of the poems proposed by each of the countries participating. It took place in a park of the town. They also prepared a multidisciplinary event in the public theatre house, whose title was "Everywhen".

"I'm 100% in favour of an exchange. I did it when I was young and my daughter also had the opportunity" (mother)

"It's the best way to open student's minds" (teacher)

TunY
a tuning challenge for teachers